

the outskirts of the town. He was well known around Plainfield, and many people feared him and were afraid of him taking these fits. Operative then returned to Plainfield, N. J. and had Mrs. Hall's chauffeur drive me to ~~the~~ the hospital at Morristown, N. J., and there interviewed Dr. Marcus A. Curry, Superintendent of the Hospital. He produced pictures of this John Manley, the picture was taken in August 24, 1926. He has a large mustache but it has turned almost grey, and he had a heavy grey beard and the top of his head is bald. The Superintendent could not let me see the man unless I was accompanied by a relative of the man, or if I had a letter from a relative. I returned to Somerville and took the matter up with Senator Case, and he gave me a letter and advised me to again see Smalley and have him try and get me a letter from this woman, the wife of Manley so that I might be able to get in the Hospital to see him.

Respectfully submitted,
